WHITE COSTUMES.

If you are on the street, either in or out of the parade, on next Monday, wear white clothes. This is the request of the Floral Parade committee, which believes that a large percentage of white costumes among both women and men will be particularly in keeping with everything connected with the parade. In some instanced in carrying out a color scheme of decoration, this may not be feasible, but for the most part white will conform probably better than any color to the surroundings.
